Mountain Lions Take Middlesboro Into Camp

Teeth Agleam They Snarl Defiance at the Crowd

BATTLE ROYAL

Annual Thanksgiving Tussle Was Fine Exhibition of Football and All Are Proud of Home Boys.

The Mountain Lion came 'a Roaring' out of his lair at Pineville yesterday. He was crying for prey and got it; but Oh boy! what a time he had. All games between Middlesboro and Pineville are hard fought but yesterday was a humdinger to a fare-you-well. The lion snarling and showing his teeth, charged, and charged, into the yellor jackets territory. They stung him back, and bit, and clawed and fought and fought.

It was—a great day. As has been predicted in the Daily News the greatest crowd that has ever witnessed a game in Middlesboro was present fully 2,000 attended. They came early, they came from the head of the branch to the mouth of the creek. The former students of Middlesboro High were here from everywhere.—The Daily News would suggest that the next game be a home coming affair. Homer Griffeth and Geo. Sewell Lexington, Hollis Evans Georgetown, Elizabeth Reeves Richmond Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Price of Spears Ferry, Va., Roy Owsley Professor of English in Ohio State at Columbus, O., Jo D. Hill, Johnson City, Tenn., and a host of others were there. The crowd was good natured and made a noise like ten thousand. The Middlesboro Brass Band added zest to the occasion.

The game was one of the finest exhibitions of foot ball that will be seen in a long long time. The defense of both teams was superb. Pineville had the stronger offense as the details of the game will show. Middlesboro was handicapped by having both her regular ends out of the game. Middlesboro has no alibi to offer. Pineville had a quicker and stronger offense, not so much, but enough to win.

The officials were able and handled the game without any wrangling. The writer would like to see see time taken by the teams getting their signals and line up for the play. We know it is more a matter of Psychology than of necessity; but the crowd comes for action and not Psychology.

It is regretable that men will bet on High School foot ball. Gambling is a moral wrong and is a crime in the sight of the law. It will finally break up foot ball if it is not checked. A game ought to be watched by enough officers and if betting goes on, make the betors bet in secret. For the good of the game the writer protests against men swagering around, shaking their money in the open, and bantering others for a bet.

There was a better feeling in this game than any has been played between the two teams. The time will come and is already here when these annual games will be an occasion when true sportsmanship will rule, and the bitterness that has existed will belong to a part and forgotten age. For those who wish to study the game we give it to you in detail.

The Game By Quarters

First Quarter: Pineville defended the north goal. Kirk received kick-off by Gibson on his own five yard line, returning the ball 13 yards. The first play was a forward pass, which was grounded. Earl then gained 21 yards around right end. D. James 5 yards through center. F. Smith 6 yards and first down center. Earl 6 yards nigh tackle Hawthorn 1 yard left tackle. F. Smith 3 yards and first down through right tackle. Earl fumbles and Evans recovers. Middlesboro 40 yard line. Gibson no gain right tackle Callison 7 yards left tackle Gibson 2 yards left tac-

HOME TALENT PLAY PROMISES TO BE SUCCESS

To Be Given Under the Auspices of the Woman's Club.

"UNION DEPOT"

Scene of Play Which Takes Place In a Union Depot Furnishes Many Laugh-Provoking Incidents.

The members of the cast of The Union Depot, the far to be given by the Womans Club held their second rehearsal last night. The rehearsal indicated what a tremendous success it will be.

The play takes place in a waiting room in a railroad station. People come and go, the many types that one sees at such a place are all portrayed. These are very well acted by the cast. Mrs. Ketchum a fussy old lady and her daughter, are acted by Mrs. Brosheer and Miss Minnie Perkins are exceedingly funny. Miss Bessie Edwards, as the aunt and Walter Brown as her nephew who continually asks embrassing questions, are a laugh from start to finish. Ezra Pitkin and Priscilla Pitkin both from the country, played by Mr. McKinnon and Miss Mary Skeen, will remind you of the railroad station at Corbin, and Mrs. Pumphrey, as Mrs. Chatterson who interviews everybody, is a scream. Her pronounciation is perfect and her dialogue is humorous. The worthy reverend, is played by Mr. Rodeffer and a better character for the part could hardly be found. Mr. Rodeffeler's dignity and voice carry him beyond the fondest expectations. Then Mrs. Burnett and Mr. Lyle Webster as Mr. and Mrs. Nagg, the loquacious wife and henpecked husband will bring tears to the eyes from laughter. Mr. Nagg finally does get in a word edgewise. Mr. Fryer is the Professor who gets a baby handed to him and doesn't know what to do with it. Mrs. Keegan is the kindly Miss Blathers, who finally induces Mr. Spookendyke, the widower with four children to take another wife—he does—he takes her. The Bridal party from the country, going on a 'tower' is ludicrous. The bride still wears ruffles in her sleeves and headgear of the vintage of 1890. The groom wears the latest in trousers, gloves, suspenders and hat. Mountjoy Savage, as Billy Bunch the smart aleck; Miss Ruth McClure as the Prima Donna, Mr. Walbrecit as the Dude and the Hero, Miss Skeen as, Miss Brim and Miss Winnie Pippin as the old maid perform splendidly.

A special feature will be Miss Virginia Broesheer, Miss Lucille Short, Miss Margaret Sampson, Miss Alice Glouster, Miss Alice Moich, Miss Edith Campbell, and Miss Laura Gunn in a song number.

In between the scenes wandering musicians come in and play and sing. The High School Quartette known as the Noetown Harmony Four are strolling Italians and will sing an Italian number. The well known Boys Dance Orchestra will give several numbers and the orchestra conducted by Prof. Surman needs no further praise.

A program such as this is a rare treat and its only been through the widespread activities that the woman's club that it is possible. Middlesboro's best in home talent, in the spoken word, acting and music will be on that night and it is a treat not to be missed. Tickets sell for fifty cents for adults and twenty five cents for children.

FRENCH COAST IS SWEPT BY VIOLENT STORM

Rowboat Filled With Shipyard Workers Is Capsized.

EIGHT DROWNED

In Cherbourg Region, Houses Are Unroofed and Trees Are Unrooted By Severe Gale.

PARIS, Nov. 28. (AP)—A violent temptest today wrought havoc along the western seaboard and interior of France occasoining loss of life. At Nantes a rowboat, ferrying homeward bound with workers from the shipyard sank when struck by a large wave. Eight occupants were drowned.

In the Cherbourg region, houses were unroofed and trees were uprooted while a pontoon bridge used in harboring improvment work was torn from the moorings and driven against a steamship.

All steamship service to Havre is delayed. Near Le Mans, a wind blew two freight cars into a passenger train. Three persons were injured. Other freight cars were blown off the track, causing longer delays in train service. Eight military airplanes were damaged when an airdrome at Bron was unroofed

MAKE PLEA FOR MEMORIAL BRIDGE

Congress Will Be Asked to Consider Plans of the Arlington Memorial Bridge.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—Congress will be asked at its coming session to again consider the Arlington Memorial Bridge plans with a view to making them a reality.

The idea of spanning the Potomac river with "arches of ever-enduring granite," to more firmly forge the links between the North and South is credited to President Jackson. Various presidents have favored the project and Persident Coolidge now heads the Arlington Bridge Commission, which is sponsoring the proposal, thus to join the Lincoln Memorial with Arlington National Cemetery on the Virginia shore opposite the capital.

The bridge, as now planned, would cost $14,750,000 and be completed in ten years. Nine spans enter into its construction. Eagles, symbolic of the United States, surmount the architecture at the entrances to the bridge which is to be 2,138 feet long, with a 60-foot road way and total width of 90 feet. The structure will be faced with granite harmonizing with the Colorado Yule marble of the Lincoln Memorial. The whole proposal, its sponsors declare would make it "the greatest single memorial project undertaken by any nation in recent times."

It will provide a magnificent entrance to Washington from the Lee highway, coming across the continent form Los Angeles. Entering the capital in this way, the traveler would obtain a view of the city's parkway system, the Columbia Island columns, the Potomac and the Lincoln Memorial, with the white dome of the Capitol in the distance.

Home Is Fired On Thanksgiving Day

The dwelling house owned by G. J. Humphlett located on Exeter avenue and 27th street was fired Thursday morning at 6:15 o'clock. Little damage was done, the fire eating a small hole in the roof.

It is thought that defective wiring was the cause of the blaze. The Fire Department arrived immediately and due to their rapid work extensive loss of property was prevented.

SCHOOL LIBRARY IS TEACHING AID

It Is to Entire School What the Laboratory Is to the Science Department.

FRANKFORT, Nov. 28. (AP)—The high school library is an essential part of the high school of today, Mark Godman, state high school supervisor, declared today in conclusion of preparation of a library manual for Kentucky High Schools.

"It is doubtless the greatest single aid in the way of teaching equipment to be found in the school. It is to the entire school what the laboratory is to the science department. Our schools are too closely circumscribed by the textbook.

"To overcome this defect in the teaching process we must seek to develop in the child the desire to become familiar with the best that has been written in the various fields of knowledge. By being taught to use and respect good books, a child may procure as varied and valuable information thru his own initiative as he can usually obtain in a classroom when the textbook is his solo instructional inspiration. It hoped that as secondary education develops in Kentucky the high school library will more and more become the working center of high school instructional activities.

"It is through the high school library that the pupil is trained in the use of books and of libraries for reference purposes. Here he has an opportunity to broaden his information and liberalize his views and to develop good reading tastes and habits.

CURTIS SENATE LEADER

Washington, Nov. 28. (AP)—Charles Curtis, senior senator from Kansas, was selected today as successor to the late Henry Cabot Lodge, Massachusetts, republican leader of the senate. Senator James E. Watson of Indiana was elected vice-chairman and party whip, the post formerly held by Senator Curtis.

Ladd, Frazier and Brookhart Follow Wake of Leader Over the Fence From Republican Fold.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin and three of his principal supporters among senate republicans were formerly read out of the republican party today at a conference here today.

The conference adopted resolutions which were introduced by Senator Reed of Pennsylvania under which LaFollette, and Senators Ladd and Frazier of North Dakota, and Brookhart of Iowa will no longer be given republican places on the Senate committees or invited to attend future party conferences.

Senator Ladd was the only one of the quartette of insurgent senators present at the meeting. Senator LaFollette who was independent candidate for president, remained at home.

ROBINSON CASE GOES TO JURY

LONDON, Nov. 28. (AP)—The jury in the Robinson case which involves an unnamed Indian prince, rendered a verdict today finding that conspiracy existed to exort money from the prince who has been known through the trial as "Mr. A." but that Robinson and Mrs. Robinson not parties to it.

The jury also found that "Mr. A" was induced to part with two checks for one hundred and fifty thousand pounds each through such fear and alarm that his mind was unsettled and that his act was not free and voluntary.

After these findings, the jury retired to consider further questions put to it by the presiding judge.

WILL MRS. HARDING PROBATED--- BULK GOES TO GRANDCHILDREN

"Dark Horse" Wins By One Length

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—(AP)—Thousands of spectators were "absolutely stunned and numerous bookmakers sent into a state of confusion," to quote Berlin sport writers, when Pan Robert, "dark horse" from Austria, at the fashionable Grunewald track, won by a length from a field of 12, most of which were "favorites," at 2,248 gold marks to 10. Herman Roller, the owner, for months, has had Pan Roberts up for sale at $3,000 marks, but there were no takers.

The race was the wildup of the fall season and all the prize winners of running races for months had been entered. There were no big bets on Pan Roberts, the owner himself being dubious of his horse's performances. The bets all told amounted to but 310 gold marks and were divided among the "small fry" in five and ten mark bets. It was the first race that Alfred Bleuler, who rode Pan Robert, had won this season.

Old Friends and Relatives Are Remembered In Will.

HALF A MILLION

Property Consisted Largely of Marion Real Estate and Securities, Reverted to Widow On President's Death.

MARION, O., Nov. 28. (AP)—Jean and George DeWolf, grandchildren of the late Mrs. Warren G. Harding, were left the bulk of her estate under the will filed for probate today. No estimate of the value was made.

The will makes special bequests to friends and relatives that will aggregate $56.000and leaves the residue of the estate to her grandchildren who live here. It is generally believed that Mrs. Harding's estate will total more than $500,000.

The grandchildren are not to come into the estate until they are 28 years of age. Jean is now 15 and George 12 years old now. Old friends of the Harding family here, relatives, friends, retainers of the Harding regime were remembered substantially by Mrs. Harding.

The estate consisted largely of property that reverted to her when President Harding died and consisted largely of Marion property and securities.

MYSTERY STILL ENVELOPES THE OHIO CRIME

Work of Prosecutor and His Aides Comes to Standstill.

NO CLUES FOUND

Hundreds of Curious People Throng Streets In Front of the Sheatsley Residence In Bexley.

COLUMBUS, O. Nov. 28. (AP)—Nothing tending to solve the veil of mystery, which has hung over the parsonage of Christ Evangelical church in the fashionable Bexley district, since the practically cremated body of Mrs. Addie Sheatsley was found in the furnace 11 days ago, developed yesterday.

The work of County Prosecutor John R. King and his aides was at a standstill. They rested after a period of almost constant work since the body was found by the husband, the Rev. C. V. Sheatsley.

Tonight Mr. King said he had no plans for the remainder of the week. Further action, he said, will depend on the report of scientific experts.

Hundreds of curious persons today passed through the street in front of the parsonage to which the Rev. Mr. Sheatsley and his four children returned from Paris Ohio, where funeral services were held for Mrs. Sheatsley a week ago.

Premises of the parsonage were guarded today by stalwart members of the football squad of Capital university, where the minister is a lecturer, on religious subjects. The family today remained in seclusion.

HIGH TENSION LINE COMPLETED

Completion of This New Line Assures Middlesboro of Future Power Supply.

Monday, November 24th marked the completion of the new high-tension line from the Four Mile Power station to the Middlesboro sub-station of the Kentucky Utilities company, a distance of 13½ miles.

During the last three months about 40 men have been actively engaged in the construction of this new line. Starting at the new power station at Four Mile, Ky., the work progressed toward Middlesboro, first the poles were raised in position, and after being equipped with the insulators, the large aluminum wire was strung high up in the air, and each day saw the work advanced toward Middlesboro, until within the short time of about three months, the line was completed and is now in service.

Middlesboro for the last several years has been getting electricity from the stations of the Kentucky Utilities company at Pocket, Va., and Varilla, Ky. The new line just completed will make available power generated at the new power station at Four Mile, Ky., and give Middlesboro and vicinity two sources of electricity and two different lines to bring that power to Middlesboro. Built at an expense of approximately $75,000, the new line is another link in Middlesboro's chain of progress and will tend to eliminate long interruptions in electric service and will furnish the additional power that will be required in the future development of industrial Middlesboro.

ROAD WORK IS BROUGHT TO ABRUPT HALT

Awarding Construction Contracts Suspended Until June 30, 1926.

ROAD FUNDS LOW

The Commission's Policy Will Be to Live Within Its Income and So Many Plans Must Be Curtailed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 28.—Awarding of construction contracts was suspended by the State Highway Commission today until June 30, 1926.

Virtually all projects on which low bids were tabulated and announced October 29 and today were rejected. Today's low bidders submitted work totaling $1,653,370.28.

The commission's policy will be to live within its income and it will have to content itself with seeing the building of roads so far contracted for by it during the remainder of its biennial working period, which ends June 30, 1926. Until that time no more contracts will be let.

This policy was disclosed by W. C. Montgomery, Chairman of the commission, last night in the first formal statement of the new commission.

Montgomery explained "the financial embarrassment of the Highway Department," after the day's hearing of road men, with Governor W. J. Fields sitting the latter part of the afternoon. The commission adjourned to meet two weeks from today.

No modification was made of the shut-down 'order concerning the actual construction work in the hands of road gangs and they will cease activities December 1.

Mr. Montgomery's statement in full:—

"The financial embarrassment of the Highway Department is caused by the fact that the commission relied on the statement of the Highway Engineer, filed with the Auditor of Public Accounts in May 1921 which showed revenue, Federal aid funds, and county obligations to liquidate the amounts due on contracts let by the old commission.

"It now develops that these assets will fall more than $3,00,000 short of discharging these debts.

"The more than $3,000,000 will have to be paid out of the income for the present biennial period which ends June 30, 1926, and will prevent any more construction contracts being let until after that date.

"A complete audit of the books of the Highway Department is being made by Humphrey, Robinson and Company, Louisville, public accountants, whose report will show the actual condition of the department.

"This error was apparently caused by failure to take into consideration overruns on contracts for a considerable period of time.

"The present Highway Commission has ample revenue to cover all contracts and obligations created by it.

"Practically all the projects which were to be let October 29 and November 25 will have to be rejected."

ARREST OFFICIALS

Four Members of Zagloul Party In Custody at Cairo —Egyptian Troops Resist Evacuation of Soudan.

Cairo, Nov. 28. (AP)—Two platoons of the Eleventh Soudanese infantry at Kahrtoun today mutineered and attacked the military hospital, killing several British subjects. One British and two Egyptian doctors were slain in the attack.

The English troops fired on the mutineers who were reputed suffering severe losses. Details of the mutiny are not known but certain restlessness among the members of the Eleventh batallion developed last August.

The British Cavalry and infantry paraded again today and aerial reconnoissance was carried out over the town.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The British authorities in Cairo have taken into their own hands drastic measures to suppress possible nationalistic plottings by the arrest of four prominent members of the party organization headed by former Premier Zagloul Pasha.

Those arrested were Nekrashy Bey, a secretary of the ministry of the interior in Zagloul's cabinet; Abdul Rahman Fahmy, one of Zagloul's closest political assistants; William Makram Obeid, a prominent Coptic member of the nationalist delegation, and Barakat Pasha, who was former minister of the interior.

According to statements in official quarters in London tonight the men arrested were leaders in an underground conspiracy against British interests which probably was partly responsible for the murder of Sirdar Stack and which might, if left unhampered in its activities, result in further unfortunate incidents.

There was fear that the prompt action on the part of the British might result in another Egyptian ministerial crisis, but according to the latest Cairo advices, it was announced there, after a hastily called cabinet council that there would be no ministerial resignations as the British authorities had accepted Premier Zirwar's proposal that the men taken into custody should be handed over to the Egyptians to be dealth with.

Apparently the arrest of these nationalists is regarded as merely a preventive measure and they will be placed only under observation and control. No manifestations of disorders have followed the arrests and throughout Egypt calm still prevails. There is no hint of any active opposition to the withdrawal of the Egyptian units from the Sudan. The withdrawal is expected to be completed by the end of the week.

Nothing is known of an alleged plot against the life of Field Marshal Viscount Allenby, the British high commissioner. The Egyptian people have taken no further active step toward bringing the Egyptian affair to the official attention of the League of Nations.

Opinion in official quarters remains optimistic that the outcome of the situation will be [illegible] means of direct negotiations between Zirwar and [illegible] by before the Egyptian parliament meets again.

An official spokesman stated that when the [illegible] arrests [illegible] the required orders with a view to preventing bloodshed.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

By E. R. Waite, Secretary, Shawnee, Okla., Board of Commerce.

THAT the merchants of your city are eager to be of service to you.

THAT their stocks were never more complete with the goods of high value than now. They can satisfy the most discriminating buyers.

THAT some people don't seem to know their own minds. When it comes to buying ,they do too much hesitating.

THAT if you see something advertised that you need, go buy it. Don't hesitate.

THAT nobody knows better than your merchants the prime necessity of good merchandise as a basis of acquiring and holding the confidence of the people of your city.

THAT in no city do the merchants pay more strict attention to quality than those of your city.

THAT your city is noted for its retail establishments. They are remarkable for a city of its size.

THAT the people who have never visited your city before are surprised at its shopping facilities. The more they investigate, the bigger their surprise.

THhe STORES of your city are wonderful. The stock's the same.

HUNT'S DAILY LETTER

BY HARRY B. HUNT

WASHINGTON, Nov 28.—No similar event in Washington official and social circles, since the birth of a daughter to President and Mrs. Cleveland back in the '90s, has so piqued the interest of the capital as has the report that the stork shortly will pay a visit to the home of Nick and Alice Longworth.

It is suggested the arrival of an heir might play an important part in the political as well as the personal future of the popular Cincinnati congressman.

Should the stork time its arrival propitiously, the house might be minded to hand Nick the speakership, for which he is a candidate, as a token of its felicitations.

Some members, however, believe that with a baby in the home Nick would be more valuable in his present position of floor leader.

"A new father is bound to get a lot of valuable experience on the floor," they say.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY WILBUR, knocked the tradition that cabinet members must always move with circumspection and dignity for a "row of tenpins" the other night when he showed up at the Y. M. C. A. bowling alleys.

Wilbur shed his coat, rolled up his sleeves and forgot all about dignity and circumspection for an hour, while he hurled the ebony ball down the alleys for a succession of spares and strikes.

After he got the kinks out of his elbow Wilbur is said to have hurled a mighty wicked ball.

CHALKED up another victory for Washington's bobbed hair brigade.

Incensed by criticism of bobbed heads, voiced by a visiting evangelist, choir girls in the Mount Vernon Methodist Church walked out on strike. It took all the diplomacy of the pastor, plus an open appreciation of bobbed haired girls as "a mighty fine lot" to win them back.

ONLY on formal occasions do statesmen and diplomats in Washington don the shining, tall top hat - the "plug" hat—which a generation or so ago was affected by every legislator from the sticks who came to the capital.

But there is one person in Washington who holds fast to the fashion of the old days.

Charles C Lancaster, lawyer and son-in-law of the late Samuel J. Randall, who was speaker of the house from 1877 to 1881, never walks abroad without his shining "plug."

Winter and summer, rain or shine, Lancaster's towering figure in his towering hat, is one of the sights of the city- a touch of what the capital looked like in the good old days before high buildings came in and high hats went out.

IF you have visited the capital building any time in the last three or four years, you doubtless paused to watch the interestingly attired painter person who, apparently oblivious of the rubbering crowds around him, was engaged in restoring the brilliantly colored mural decorations of the big building.

If you came today, however, you'd miss him. For the artist fell in love with one visitor who paused to admire his work and today they are honeymooning.

This painter, Charles Ayer Whipple, has given a tuch of color to the gray old building where congress meets that will be remembered by visitors when they have forgotten what the decorations on the walls looked like.

In his jaunty artist's smock, a Tam 'O'Shanter cocked artistically over one ear, a long-stemmed pipe in his mouth and a big pallette splashed with vivid colors and stuck full of brushes, he himself made a picture more striking than any of the pictures hepainted.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomel tablets, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted. —Adv.

Special Packing

...ellas, canes, golf sticks ...be re-inforced their full ...y strong strips of wood, ...wrapped and tied to with...ns portation.

...Pack in strong corrugated ... boxes. Ordinary paste...t boxes must be crated.

Ladies' hats and stiff hats easily damaged should be marked "Fragile."

Shoes: Pack in strong boxes, preferably corrugated cardboard. Wrap with strong paper securely tied with heavy twine.

Cut flowers: Place in strong suitable boxes of wood, tin or heavy corrugated cardboard. Wrap with tissue to retain moisture.

Candles: Enclose in strong outside boxes or containers.

Drawings, paintings, unmounted maps, etc., Pack wrap in strong material to avoid damage. When not flat, roll around a wooden core and then wrap and tie carefully or place in strong pasteboard tube.

Sharp-pointed or sharp-edged instruments or tools must have points and edges fully guarded to prevent injury of clerks in handling or damage to other mail. Crate suitably or thoroughly wrap so that they can not cut through the wrapping.

Fragile Articles

Articles easily broken or crushed must be crated or securely wrapped. Use liberal quantities of excelsiord, or like material, in around and between the articles and the outside container.

Glassware, fragile toys, crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken in transit.

Cigars: Ordinary boxes of cigars wrapped in paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar. Wrap in corrugated pasteboard or similar material.

All articles easily broken or damaged must be plainly marked "Fragile."

Perishable Matter

Articles likely to spoil within the time reasonably required for transportation and delivery will not be accepted for mailing. Wrap or pack carefully. Use special delivery stamps to expedite delivery.

Addresses

Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, postoffice box or rural route number, and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in the upper left-hand corner of every piece of mail. If a tag is used, the address and return card should also be written on the wrapper for use if the tag is lost, and a copy of the address should be inclosed inside the parcel.

Postage

Postage must be fully prepaid on all mail. Affix the required amount of postage in the upper right-hand corner. Full information concerning postage rates can be obtained at the parcel-post or stamp window.

Limit of Weight and Size

No parcel may be more than 84 inches in length and girth combined. For delivery locally and in the first, second and third zones, 70 pounds is the maximum weight; in all other zones 50 pounds.

Where to Mail Parcels

Uninsured parcels 4 ounces or less in weight may be mailed in street letter or package boxes, at all classified stations and branches, and at such numbered stations as are designated to receive parcels. Parcels weighing over 4 ounces cannot be mailed in street boxes, but must be taken to the main post office or classified station or branch. Parcels containing meat, food products, cut flowers, or other perishable matter should be mailed only at the main post office or one of the large classified stations.

When to Mail Christmas Cards and Parcels.

Christmas gifts and cards addressed to points within one day's travel should be mailed not later than December 20; within two days travel, not later than December 18; within three days' travel, not later than December 16; for more distant points, not later than December 14th. Parcels and cards for local delivery should be mailed not later than December 22.

Parcels and envelopes may be indorsed "Please do Not Open Until Christmas."

Christmas Cards

The early mailing of Christmas cards is just as important as parcels. Millions of these cards, separate and in envelopes, are mailed each Christmas. Consequently, great congestion and delay occurs in large post offices where they are all mailed within a day or two of Christmas. Therefore, if you want your Christmas greetings to reach your relatives and friends on or before Christmas Day, follow the instructions in the preceding paragraph relative to mailing early, and be certain of delivery before Christmas.

Christmas Stamps and Stickers

Christmas stamps or stickers of any character must not be placed on the address side of mail matter. Pasters or stickers resembling postage stamps are not permissible on mail matter. In using Christmas stickers they should be so placed as not to seal the parcel.

Beads Are Feature

Beads are applied to this pink georgette frock in a manner that is different and quite charming. The wide band about the bottom of the skirt and the narrower one going up the front is made of closely woven fringes of iridescent beads. There is a suggestion of a fountain in these tiny cascades that catch the light and reflect it so delicately. The narrow scarf is worthy of interest because the smart scarf is lengthening and becoming less wide.

Winter Furs Are Seen at Lonchamps

PARIS, Nov. 28.—(AP).—Autumn's first chill wind has brought out the winter furs of the 1925 season.

A fortnight ago fur was a trimming, something women wore because it was fashionable, but at Longchamp recently they had become an essential part of dress and were put on for warmth.

A natural sealskin coat trimmed with skunk, worn by one of the models, was the sensation of the day. Paris had never seen such a seal coat before. Usually the sealskin as prepared by Paris furriers and worn by Parisiennes is of a seal had undergone no transformahandling by the fur experts.

It was grey, silky, shiny, in spots shading from grey to white, the seal in its natural state.

Otter skin was one of the favorites. By some unusual process of the furrier a golden tint had been given to the fur, which promises to be very popular. Fox furs, squirrel, badger, skunk and astrakan also were shown.

Ermine is the chosen fur for evening wraps when chinchilla is not used. Both these furs are popular for theatre cloaks and coats. Stone martin, sable ad mink are being used for scarves, which are wide and long.

Balkan Frontiers Are In Confusion

BELGRADE, Nov. 28. (AP) — The confusion of the frontiers of the Balkans and Central Europe, as an outcome of the war, has not been settled by any means, although little is heard of the doubtful state of affairs outside of the immediate regions affected.

New boundary lines have been run through towns and villages in various countries and even across the farms of peasants themselves; In many instances it is reported that the individuals whose property is concerned do not know to this day to which state they should pay taxes. Estimates have been made by investigators that it will require ten years or even longer to get the boundary lines straightened out, and conditions amicable settled for many thousands of persons.

German Meat Eaters Demand Fancy Cuts

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—(AP),—It pays German cattle breeders today to fatten their cattle, something that has not been true since the war. Fat cattle on the hoof bring up to 30 cents a pound, and hogs as high as 37 cents.

During the inflation period few farmers cared to bother about fattening their livestock, partly because the price of feed was so high, and because the German people were so happy at having anything to eat at all that they did not lay much emphasis upon especially choice cuts.

With the return of stable conditions there has come a demand for choice meats, and farsighted farmers are giving much time and thought to the feeding of cattle.

MOTORLESS PLANES TRAVEL FAST

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—Two interesting flights in gliders have been recorded here. In the Crimea an aviator remained aloft in a glider for five hours and 15 minutes, while in Italy a German flyer traveled 17 1-2 miles in 18 minutes in an airplane without motive power.

Officers Capture Moonshine Still

Wednesday morning Constable J. A. Thompson and a party of deputies went in search of Jim Hicks who is wanted in connection with the shooting of Tom Cinnamon and also on the charge of operating a still.

They encountered their man at 11 o'clock at Log Mountain, Kentucky near the Gunn mine. At the time he had a still on his kick. Thompson called on Hicks to halt and the answer was a rifle shot. The officers returned the fire and Hicks fled leaving his still behind him.

A hat belonging to Hicks was found by the officers. It was punctured by three bullet holes. The still was destroyed and the contents poured into the ground.

Hicks lived with a [illegible] by the name of John Mill[illegible]. It is believed that the still was owned by him. Officers are now searching for both men.

New Way to Stop Night Coughing

Those who have suffered the tortures of sleeplessness due to continual coughing at night, and who as a result often feel utterly worn-out and useless during the day, need no longer permit their systems to be weakened and their vitality sapped by this distressing ailment. For through a very simple treatment the trouble can be stopped almost at once, and people often get their full night's rest undisturbed after the very first trial.

Here is the method: Simply get a bottle of the prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery from any good drug store. Then to-night before retiring take one teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it. This prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals the soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which is the real cause of the cough. So your throat is left wonderfully soothed and cleared of irritating gatherings, you can sleep soundly and restfully, and the cough is usually gone in a very short time.

Dr. King's New Discovery is a remarkable remedy for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, sore throat, spasmodic croup, bronchitis, laryngitis and bronchial asthma. At all good druggists. Ask for

KENTUCKY

FIRE CAUSES $10,000 DAMAGE

HARLAN, Ky., Nov. 28.—A $10,000 estimated loss by fire was sustained by occupants of the Steve Cawood building, when fire razed early Wednesday morning. The fire started from a defective flue and a number of paper cartons.

The principle losers are: The Kentucky Utilities Company, estimated to have lost $5,000 by fire and water, damage to the building, $2,500, Marks Electric Company, $250, Dr. Catherine R. Marks, $450, J. S. Gross Engineering office, not yet known, Johnson, Lyttle & Morgan, $400 and other offices in the building were damaged to a small extent by smoke and water. All damages are covered by insurance.

RECORD COAL OUTPUT

HARLAN, Nov. 28.—Mines in Harlan County loading a total of 4,682 railroad cars last week broke all records for coal production in the county. 3,501 were produced and shipped by members of the Harlan County Operators' Association and the remaining 1,028 cars were loaded by Lynch, Benham, Ford and Black Mountain, not members of the Association.

This record is the largest mark in coal production in Harlan County since the first car of coal was taken out of the Wallins Creek section over thirteen years ago.

Records from the association show that more than 8,000 men are actively employed in the different branches of coal production. More than 236,735 tons of coal were produced last week and the freight according to clerks at Loyal totaled upwards of a million dollars. Many more weeks like this and Harlan county will enjoy prosperity like it had in 1920.

WATER COMPANY PUMPING NEW WELL

LONDON, Nov. 28.—The London Water Company on Tuesday connected to their system their new well recently completed on Manchester street, just east of the Eversole Grocery company. The preliminary testing was satisfactory and if the well produces as it is hoped it will the Company will have a pumping capacity about three times the present requirements and enough to take care of all normal increase for a long time to come. This makes the Water Company's fourth well, three of which are being pumped.

Respond Generously To Red Cross Drive

HARROGATE, Nov. 28.—With a paid-in membership exceeding by a considerable number that of any previous year since its organization, the Powell's Valley Red Cross Captain W. L. Jones, chairman of chapter closed its roll call today, the Roll Call committee, reports thirty more than were enrolled during the year of the war, when the membership reached 100. He says he is exceedingly pleased with the way in which the citizens of Powell's Valley responded to the call.

Captain Jones began the drive for members on November 1. He stationed his workers, who were young women students of Lincoln Memorial University, at the various polling places throughout the valley, with the result that a number of people, who otherwise might have been overlooked, were reached. The names of the young women who assisted Mr. Jones in the drive are as follows: Misses Frances Ashley, Ella Smith, Thelma Howard, Alma Poore, Belle Wilson, Irene Bolton, Gladys Ausmus, Della Hall and Hazel Kelly.

At a recent meeting of the Chapter officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President J. H. Rector; Vice-President, C. P. Williams; Secretary, Maggie Mae Rector, Treasurer, R. L. Kincaid; Publicity Chairman, Myrtle G. Thompson. The Powell's Valley Chapter of the Red Cross includes Cumberland Gap, Harrogate, Speedwell, Arthur, LaFollette and Van Buren Springs.

VOTERS MUST PAY POLL TAX

BIG STONE GAP, Nov. 28.—Those who desire to vote in the coming town election in June 1925, must pay their poll tax this month in order to qualify themselves, as the law requires all persons to pay their poll tax six months prior to an election. It would also be wise to pay real estate and personal taxes now as a 5 per cent. penalty will be added after December 1st. The Treasurer and his deputies are abroad in the county now receiving money for 1924 taxes, therefore it is important that you see the mat once.

OPEN FORUM

Kiwanis Club,
Middlesboro, Kentucky.
Gentlemen:

We have been informed that the opponents of the State Bond Issue, especially in those counties that carried it by large majorities, were under a false impression as to the actual vote of Lexington on the proposition. Your county being one of these we take this means of giving you the facts with the idea that any false impression that may exist will thereby be removed.

The vote in Lexington gave a majority of 228 in favor of the Bond Issue. Lexington as you know, is surrounded by a large agricultural community. Many people living in the city draw their livelihood from his source. As you well know the agricultural interests everywhere were against the Bond Issue. Indeed our study of the vote convinces us that Lexington was practically the only community in the State in which agriculture is an important factor, that voted in favor of the Bond Issue.

We shall be glad to have you use this letter to inform your members in the event you feel there are still those uninformed or misinformed as to the vote in Lexington.

Very Truly Yours,
David Ades, Chairman.

File Petition With Highway Commission

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 28.—(AP).—Petition that the state highway commission suspend its rule against letting contracts until July 1, 1925, beginning of the new fiscal year, has been filed with the commission by the Midland Trail Association.

The petition recites that there are but thirteen miles of road, with [illegible] between Owingsville and the Rowan county line, left for construction to complete the Midland Trail in Kentucky. The road runs from Louisville to Ashland.

The plea was made to accommodate "the traffic from the West Virginia line to the City of Louisville."
